

SUMMER COMPENSATION GUIDELINES

Know your summer pay limits, roles, and deadlines – track your compensation and contact UCPath with deduction questions.

Compensation Limit

Total summer compensation from all sources, including Summer Sessions, may not exceed 3/9ths of the annual base salary.

Faculty are responsible for tracking all summer earnings (teaching, research, fellowships, stipends, etc.).

Instructor of Record

Pay is based on the annual salary (as of June 30), session length, and number of units. Instructors may teach up to 3 summer courses across 2+ sessions.

Associates In & TA

Summer Sessions will assign the correct increment step upon processing. Note: all increment steps default to 1 until updated by Summer Sessions.

Readers

Paid hourly, based on enrollment. Cannot exceed hours approved by Summer Sessions. Extra hours are charged to home department.

- Graduate (B.A. completed): $22.14/hour
- Undergraduate (no B.A.): $21.22/hour